My work is my autobiography. Though interdisciplinary (architecture, drawing, painting, sound, music, performance) with numerous national and international performance, group and solo exhibitions under my belt, the digital work created during the Covid-19 pandemic has come to be my most important work going forward into 2021. The work explores geometry, nature, self and the certainty/uncertainty of life and moment.

THEON ORUM

Photographing naked men is all about light, force, questioning, and creating a powerful connection.

It's about telling meaningful stories.

That's why nude photography is my passion.

*My name is Theon, and I've been photographing men
for almost a decade*

*I invite you to visit my blog, see more of my nude photography work, read the stories, watch the nude videos, and share your thoughts with me.
Peace & Love, Theon.*

www.imjudas.com/photo-albums

Photographing naked men is both a great challenge and a lot of fun. The challenge is to intimately connect with a nude model, make him feel comfortable, and embrace his nudity and sexuality.

The fun part is watching him adjust his attitude about his naked body from shame to pride.

That is my real reward.

In addition, I use nude photos of men to show the world how beautiful and natural nudity and gay sex are.

My unique blog focuses on sharing my life through nude photos, videos, and actual stories about my sexual encounters.

www.imjudas.com

Most of my stories take place at a gay nudist beach that I visit frequently.

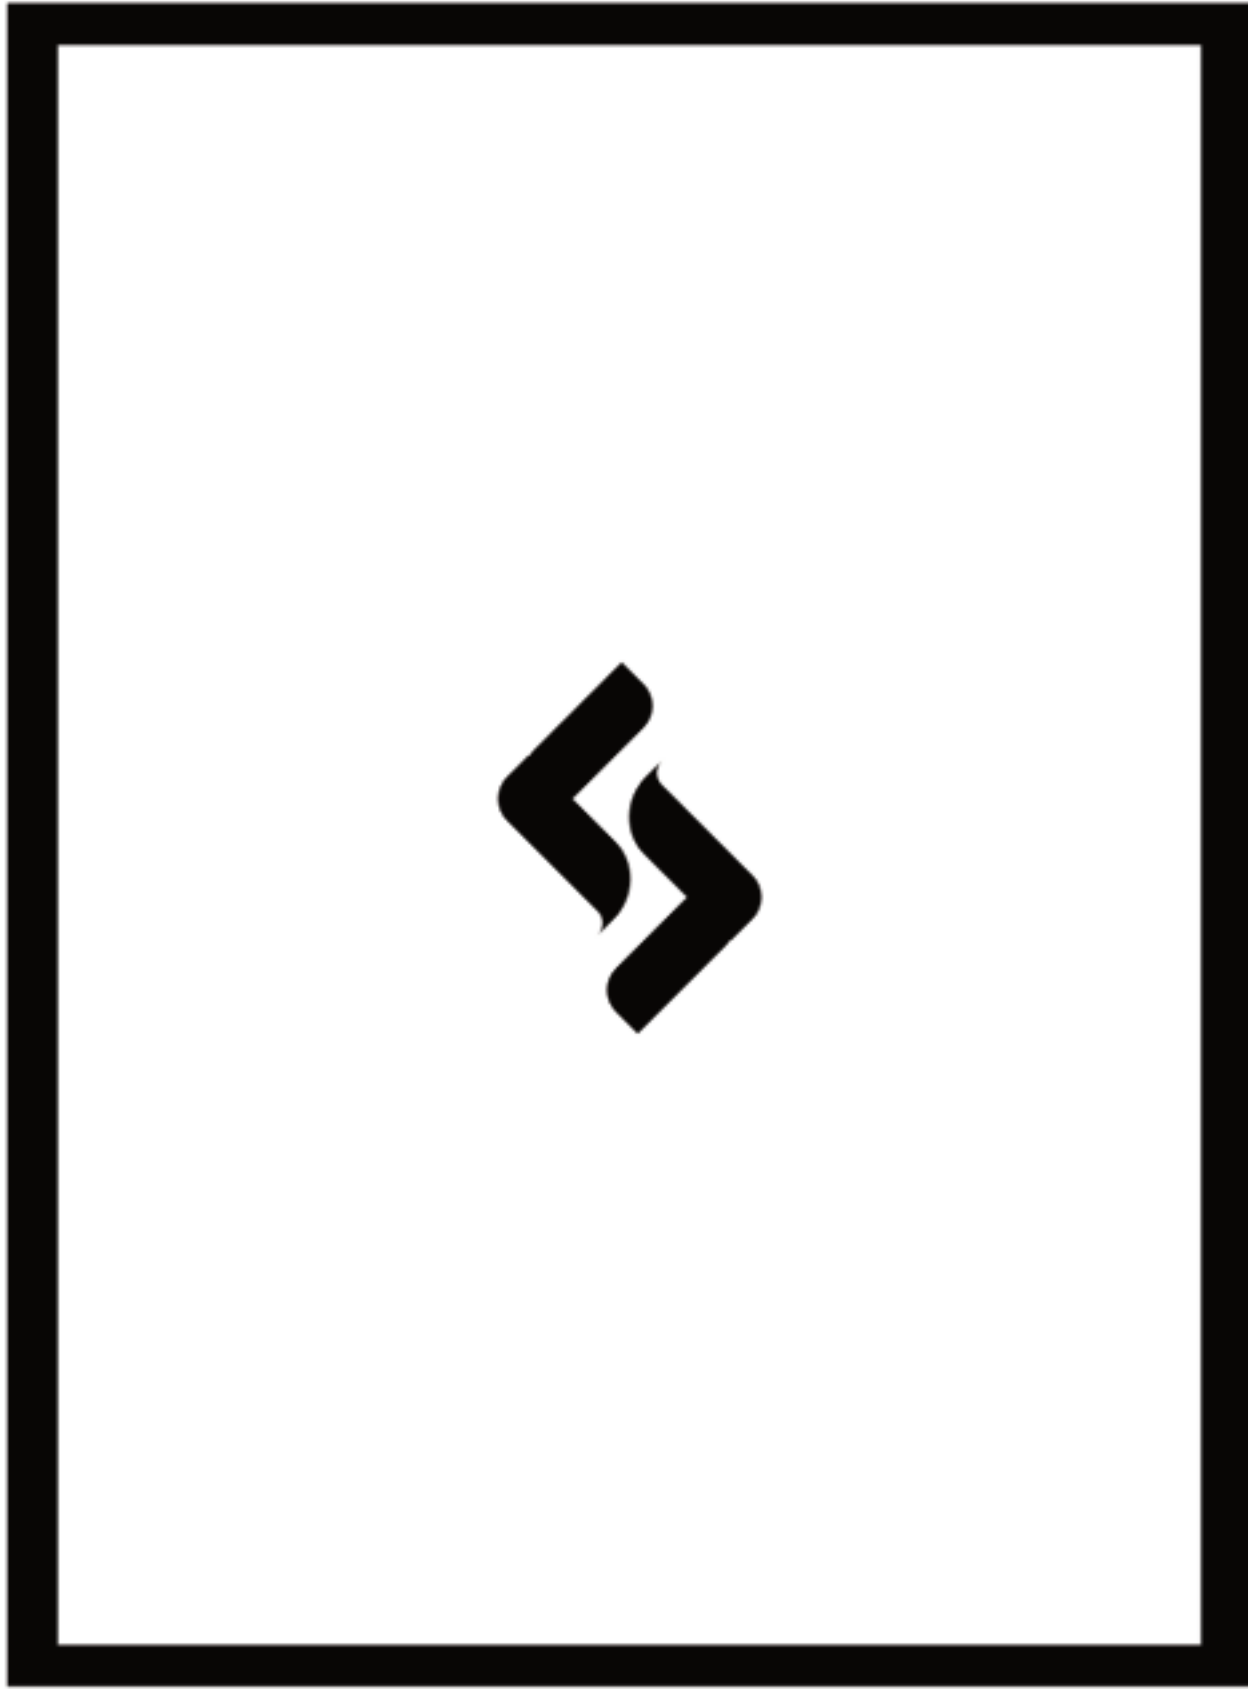

My blog is free (no ads or paywall).

Through my stories and erotic photography, I help many men who deal with issues about their sexuality.

I do it out of love for my fellow men.

Men often tell me that my free and happy naked way of living, conveyed by my nude photography, helped them deal with their struggle to be naked and free.

One of them was nearly 90 years old!

Into the Forest

Laguz rune

previous page. Hagal · Berkano

We are a gay couple of classically trained artists from Poland with background in philosophy and cultural studies. Two years ago, we merged our talents and set up a duo art collective, called Wild Foxdeers. The name itself refers to our individual spirit animals, blending into one, and our common passion for exploring the wilderness.

Shaman

Perthro rune · Eihwaz rune

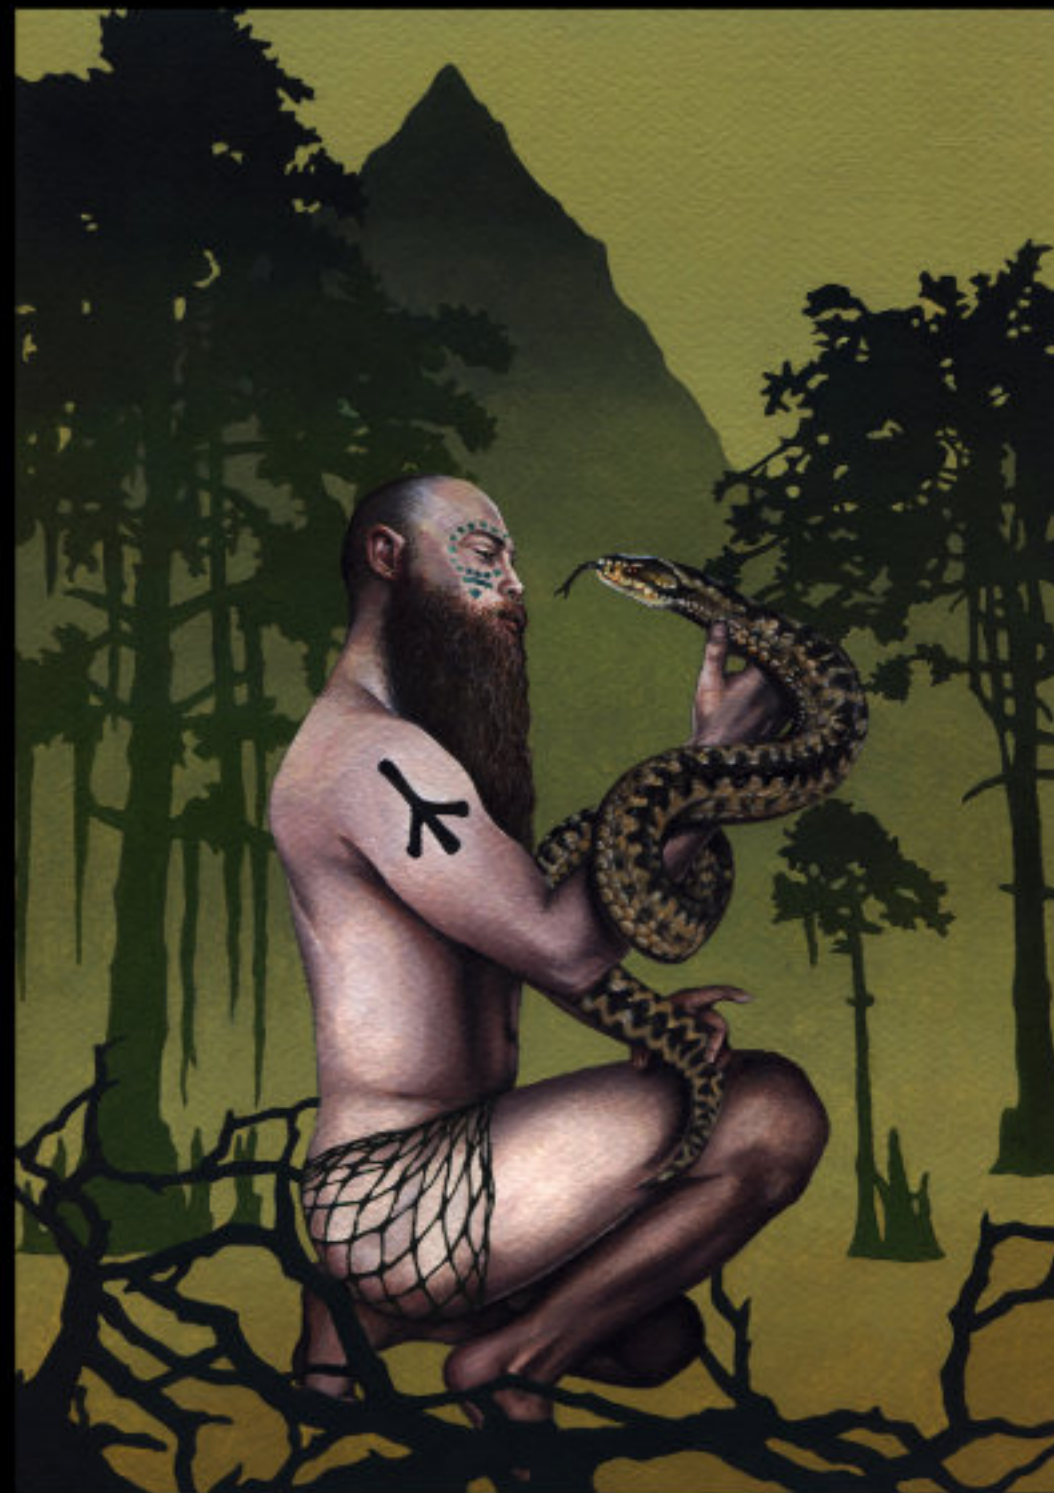

Our nature and human form inspired oil paintings, have been emerging from a two year cooperation, dating back to early 2019. We are both declared Wiccans with interest in magical arts and occult, which shows strongly in our works.

The Moon

In the Bedroom

It is our belief that humankind and nature constitutes one, rather than two separate realities.
Humans, generally, like to think about themselves as rational beings, liberated
from derogatory limitations of their body by means of technology and culture.
Despite the inventions of modern times we are still craving food, drink and sleep...

The Sun · Pluto

Dagaz rune · Mars

When we are trying to shut our primary nature in dark corners of our minds, really dark things are starting to happen and we live as only half of who we are. We oppose it strongly in our paintings, showing scenes of connection with nature within and around us.

You can find us on Instagram: @wild.foxdeers
where we are showing our progress on animal-inspired series at the moment. We are in occasional search for models and take commissions as well, so if you want to be paint by us,
the doors are open.
